

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2019

Congratulations to the girls' basketball team for winning the regional in Clinton last night. The girls will play Monday in Taylorville.

Congratulations to Taylor Fleming for being selected to sing The National Anthem at the IHSA State Basketball finals at Redbird Arena on the campus of ISU next Friday. Taylor was selected after a rigorous audition process which took place at the ILMEA All-State Music Conference last month. CONGRATULATIONS TAYLOR!

There are two new scholarships available in the guidance office:

The Mitch Webb Memorial Wrestling Scholarship - A one-time grant of a $1,000 awarded to a Senior wrestler.

Sarah Bush Volunteer Guild Scholarship - Awarded to any person enrolling/accepted into a hospital-related care profession.

The Merv Baker Scholarship is due February 22. If you have filled this out, please return it to the guidance department. This scholarship is for seniors who have participated in a sport for all four years of high school and have maintained a GPA of 3.0.

A representative will be here from Eastern Illinois University will be here Wednesday, February 20th for any junior or senior that would want to meet. Please see the guidance office to sign-up and schedule a time to meet with her. The deadline for seniors to apply for scholarships at EIU is quickly approaching. She can also help you navigate the scholarship page.

All course applications are due to the guidance office the end of the day TODAY. This includes: PE Student Leader, Internship, Entrepreneurship, Co-op, ClassE and Health Occupations. The Lake Land College intent to enroll form is also due on-line if you are enrolling in a dual credit course for the 1st time.

Students: Please check out the table in front of the main office after 6th and 7th periods today. There will be free food available to anyone that wants it.

TODAY'S QUOTE:

“Develop success from failures. Discouragement and failure are two of the surest stepping stones to success.” - Dale Carnegie